Country of Origin and the Currency in which Financial Bid is to be submitted

The equipment should not be from mainland China. We want to avoid products from Chinese OEMs.

If any of the equipment in the RFQs which the interested bidder is proposing to source from abroad, the bidder will attach the quotation for that equipment / part / its accessories separately in his financial bid. In that case, the currency in which this quotation would be submitted will be the currency of that country. For evaluating such Financial bid, the currency exchange rate on the day of opening of financial bid will be considered. MECF will raise separate PO for such equipment / part / its accessories, if selected on that equipment manufacturer from abroad in that country's currency. The bidder for such equipment will be responsible for delivery of all material at site. Also the bidder will be responsible for integration of the imported parts / components / equipment with his other equipment's, if required. The commissioning of the complete set of equipment will be the bidder's responsibility.

Concession in the Import Duty / Tax Exemptions

MECF is not entitled for any import duty or any other tax exemptions.

Quote Amount

The interested bidders are expected to quote the net cost to MECF which will include transport, transit insurance, loading / unloading, installation and commissioning, testing etc.

Evaluation of Bids

The evaluation of the bids would be done on

1. Quality of product (compliance to the specifications and general terms and conditions)
2. Net cost to MECF
